

FORDANTE present "From Puccini to the Movies and more..."

Fordante return with a spectacular new concert "From Puccini to the Movies and more..." of some of the most beautiful light classics, opera arias and movie music ever written - from composers such as Strauss, Puccini and Ravel. With a fabulous repertoire that includes much well-loved classics like:

- Bolero
- Sleeping Beauty Waltz
- Orpheus Of The Underworld ("The Can Can")
- Skater's Waltz
- Sailor's Hornpipe
- Humming Chorus
- Roses of The South
- Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana

and more...

Performed alongside a mix of popular film music plus a handful of Fordante's own enchanting and mesmerising Worldly and Celtic inspired songs.

With stunning projected visuals and computer controlled lighting, the popular classics are presented in a light hearted and entertaining manner adding to the enjoyment of the concert atmosphere.

Fordante are the critically acclaimed five piece ensemble (violin, cello, viola, oboe, keyboard) created by award winning film and TV composer Phil Mountford specifically to perform light classical repertoire and movie music to audiences who may not usually experience this genre of live music.

Described as "Like André Rieu with a smaller orchestra", Fordante return to perform their most spellbinding concert yet. Suitable for absolutely anyone who enjoys music, not just for classical aficionados!

www.fordante.com

"Spectacular"

"Even better than Andre Rieu"

"Best concert I've ever been too"

"Mesmerising!"

"Beautiful music, beautifully presented!"

"Made me want to dance"

"What is there not to like?!"